OPENING HYMNS

1 The voice that breathed o'er Eden,

That earliest wedding day,
The primal marriage blessing,
It hath not passed away.

2 Still in the pure espousal
Of Christian man and maid,
The holy Three are with us,
The threefold grace is said, 3 For dower of blessed children,
For love and faith's sweet sake,
For high mysterious union Which naught on earth may break.

4 Be present, awful Father,
To give away this bride,
As Eve Thou gav'st to Adam
Out of his own pierced side: 5 Be present, Son of Mary,
To join their loving hands,
As Thou didst bind two natures In Thine eternal hands!

6 Be present, holiest Spirit,
To bless them as they kneel, As Thou, for Christ the Bridegroom,

The heavenly Spouse dost seal!

7 O spread Thy pure wing o'er them,

Let no ill power find place,
When onward to Thine altar Their hallowed path they trace.

8 To cast their crowns before Thee
In perfect sacrifice, Till to the home of gladness
With Christ's own Bride they rise.

CLOSING HYMNS

1 Through the love of God our Saviour,
all will be well.
Free and changeless is his favour,
all, all is well.

Precious is the blood that healed us, perfect is the grace that sealed us, strong the hand stretched forth to shield us,
all must be well.

2 Though we pass through tribulation,
all will be well.
Ours is such a full salvation,
all, all is well.
Happy, still in God confiding, fruitful, if in Christ abiding, holy, through the Spirit's guiding,
all must be well.

3 We expect a bright tomorrow,
all will be well.
Faith can sing through days of sorrow,
'All, all is well.'

On our Father's love relying, Jesus every need supplying,
in our living, in our dying,
all must be well.
